Vicki Kay who won our $100 Bead Fest attendance Prize last year took the Bead Fest beaded button class. She tells us it's really a miniature, portable, bead embroidery project that can be used not only as buttons but can also be combined into jewelry. Vicki's class is an example of why we offer such prizes. The society is a place where you can nurture your "addiction" in positive ways and bring new techniques back to the membership.

Instructor will have the following available for the class participants:

- flat button form
- backing piece
- cloth piece
- extra loose beads

Student Supply List for students to bring to the workshop:

- needle and thread
- magnifier
- bead mat
- task light with extension cord
- scissors
- small amount of seed beads in 3-5 colors
- any "special" 3-4 mm beads
